OUTSTANDING ACHIEVEMENT IN STUDENT PRODUCTION AWARD WINNERS NAMED

Reston, VA – May 18, 2020 - The National Academy of Television Arts and Sciences, National Capital Chesapeake Bay Chapter is pleased to announce its 2019 Student Production Award Winners.

This year, the pool of applicants from high school and college students were extremely diverse with various regions represented across the competition categories. There were 21 winning entries in 18 categories.

In total, there were 92 entries in 27 categories from students in Maryland, Virginia, and Washington, DC. There were 20 professional journalists who participated in judging the entries to identify the winners. All the High School winning entries are automatically entered to the national level of Student Production Awards.

The National Academy of Television Arts and Sciences, National Capital Chesapeake Bay Chapter is proud to continue a tradition of fostering growth among young journalists. For more information, please visit www.capitalemmys.tv/students/student-production-awards.
